As it was a learning for us, now we are witnessing the show has expanded even more. I want that through this show awareness must rise about the technological and educational advancement, and Greater Noida's universities must be equipped with the best of such advancements. Revamping the learning while making the students skilful is what Bharat Shiksha is poised for.

Bharat Shiksha Expo 2025 is an incredible platform that truly bridges the gap between education and the professional world. As an academic, it was inspiring to see how industry and institutions can collaborate meaningfully. I also came across some amazing marketing opportunities that could enhance both visibility and student engagement for our programs. This kind of exposure is exactly what educators and institutions need to stay relevant and forward-focused.
